- A Big Thanks: Fr Bart, our neighbouring parish priest (St Thomas More, E. Dulwich), on behalf of the Ukrainian refugees and their hosts in the small towns of Gorlice and Biecz in South-East Poland, sends his sincere thanks for our generous gifts. He says: 'It was a pleasure to help delivering two full loads of my car of food, toiletry items, bedding and toys which you offered to them. It really means a lot to them and brings them hope for the better future, while their husbands and dads are trying to defend their country flooded by war. Thank you for your Christian charity and I hope that you enjoy some little cards the Ukrainian and Polish children made for you before Easter'.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders: in the sight of the nations he has shown his deliverance, alleluia.

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (14: 21-27)

Paul and Barnabas went back through Lystra and Iconium to Antioch. They put fresh heart into the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in the faith. 'We all have to experience many hardships' they said 'before we enter the kingdom of God.' In each of these churches they appointed elders, and with prayer and fasting they commended them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe. They passed through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. Then after proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia and from there sailed for Antioch, where they had originally been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed. On their arrival they assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the pagans. The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Psalm 144) R: I will bless you name for ever, O God my King.

1. The Lord is king and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. R:
2. All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and you friends shall repeat their blessings.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare you might, O God. R:
3. Yours is an everlasting kingdom; your rule lasts from age to age. R:

SECOND READING: A reading from the book of the Apocalypse (21: 1-5)

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne, 'You see this city? Here God lives among men. He will make his home among them; they shall be his people, and he will be their God; his name is God-with-them. He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness. The world of the past has gone.' Then the One sitting on the throne spoke: 'Now I am making the whole of creation new.' The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! I give you a new commandment: love one another just as I have loved you, says the Lord. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John (13: 31-35)

When Judas had gone Jesus said: 'Now has the Son of Man been glorified, and in him God has been glorified. If God has been glorified in him, God will in turn glorify him in himself, and will glorify him very soon. 'My little children, I shall not be with you much longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another; just as I have loved you, you also must love one another. By this love you have for one another, everyone will know that you are my disciples.' The Gospel of the Lord. All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH (The Apostles' Creed is used during Lent and Easter Time)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into Hell. On the third day, He rose again from the dead. He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: I am the true vine and you are the branches, says the Lord. Whoever remains in me, and I in him, bears fruit in plenty, alleluia.
